

REQUEST FOR CONTINUED ACCREDITATION

This document is the culmination of a two-year period of self-analysis and self-reflection of the operational policies, practices, and processes used by Illinois Central College to fulfill its Mission and purposes. A broad cross-section of Illinois Central College's faculty and staff members participated in examining areas in relation to NCA's five criteria. This Self-Study has already led to changes and will continue to serve as part of the College's ongoing efforts to improve quality and organizational effectiveness.

Illinois Central College is a dynamic institution that has responded to the evolving needs of its various constituencies while maintaining a consistently high level of programs, instruction, and services.

The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools currently accredits Illinois Central College. This Self-Study Report serves as the application for continued accreditation. This document verifies that Illinois Central College fulfills the General Institutional Requirements and meets the five evaluative criteria established by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Therefore, the President, administrators, faculty, staff, students, and Board request that accreditation and affiliation be granted and continued.
