

Proposed 2+2 Agreement between the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and Illinois Central College

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is committed to enhancing relationships with area community colleges and the students they serve. Illinois Central College's proximity to the Illinois campus provides an opportunity to develop a formalized 2+2 program designed to provide transfer opportunities to students in the Peoria area. Working with ICC allows Illinois to increase its presence in the area and build relationships that will enhance the transfer experience for interested students.

This proposal signals agreement between the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and the Office of Admissions at Illinois Central College to develop a 2+2 program that outlines requirements for successful transfer to Illinois.
