

1098-T Frequently Asked Questions

Illinois Central College cannot provide tax advice to students and families. Individuals should consult their tax professional to find out more about their eligibility for tax credits and/or the taxability of your scholarships. Information may also be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service website at www.irs.gov.

1. What is the 1098-T form?

Educational institutions are required to file a Form 1098-T, Tuition Statement, with the IRS and provide a copy to the student when there is a reportable transaction. A reportable transaction includes payments received, amounts billed or refunds made for tuition and related expenses.

The educational institution is not required to file and provide the Form 1098-T for the following:

- ✓ Courses taken for no academic credit, even if the student is enrolled in a degree program
- ✓ Courses taken by nonresident alien students, unless the student requests the institution to file Form 1098-T
- ✓ Students whose tuition and related expenses are entirely waived or paid with scholarships or grants
- ✓ Students whose tuition and related expenses are covered by a formal billing arrangement with the student's employer or a government agency, such as the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Department of Defense

2. Why did I receive a 1098-T form and what am I supposed to do with it?

In January of each year, Illinois Central College mails or makes electronically available an IRS Form 1098-T to all students who had payments for qualified tuition and other related educational expenses during the previous calendar year. The form is informational only and should not be considered as tax opinion or advice. It serves to alert students that they may be eligible for federal income tax education credits. Receipt of an IRS Form 1098-T does not indicate eligibility for any tax credit. To determine the amount of qualified tuition and expenses paid, and the amounts of scholarships and grants received, a taxpayer should use their own financial records. It is up to the taxpayer to determine eligibility for the tax credits.

3. The Social Security Number (SSN) on my form is incorrect. How do I change that?

The student's information that is presented on the 1098-T form is the information that the student has provided to the College. To update the SSN information, the student must contact Enrollment Services. Once the information is completed, the student must contact Student Accounting informing them they have updated their SSN. If it is prior to March 15th, the information will be updated on the 1098-T and transmitted to the IRS.

Please keep in mind that failure to provide a correct SSN could result in a $100 penalty imposed by the IRS.

4. I did not receive a 1098-T. How do I get one issued?

Illinois Central College does not issue an IRS Form 1098-T for the following:

- ✓ Courses taken for no academic credit, even if the student is enrolled in a degree program

- ✓ Courses taken by nonresident alien students, unless the student requests the institution to file Form 1098-T
- ✓ Students whose tuition and related expenses are entirely waived or paid with scholarships or grants
- ✓ Students whose tuition and related expenses are covered by a formal billing arrangement with the student's employer or a government agency, such as the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Department of Defense

If you have not provided the College with your Social Security Number (SSN) or you were an international student, not eligible to claim any of the education-related tax credits or deductions, you may not have been issued a form. Those students who did not provide a SSN, a W-9S form was mailed to your address on file with a stamped return envelope. Please complete the form and return it to Illinois Central College.

5. I don't have a Social Security Number, but have an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) instead. What should I do?

You may complete an IRS form W-9S which can be obtained from our website <http://icc.edu/admissions/paying-for-college/student-tax-information/> or the IRS website, www.irs.gov. Turn the completed form into Enrollment Services and contact Student Accounting informing them your TIN has been updated. If this is done prior to March 15th, the information will be updated on the 1098-T and transmitted to the IRS.

6. What are qualified tuition and related expenses?

You must pay the expenses for an academic period* that starts during the tax year or the first three months of the next tax year.

*Academic Period - you must pay the qualified education expenses for an academic period that starts during the tax year or the first three months of the next tax year. 1098-T Information for International Students

Do I need a Form 1098T?

For most international students, the answer is no. However, that depends on whether you are a US citizen or a nonresident alien for US tax purposes. Illinois Central College makes the form available to all US citizens as required by law. Nonresident aliens, however, are generally not eligible to claim any of the education-related tax credits or deductions for which the 1098-T form is intended to serve as documentation. If you file your tax return on Form 1040NR or Form 1040NR-EZ, you are not eligible to claim those tax benefits.

How do I know whether I am an eligible person for tax purposes?

You are eligible for tax purposes if you are a US citizen, a Permanent Resident (“green card” holder), or a resident alien for tax purposes, by virtue of passing the Substantial Presence test for the year. Otherwise, you are a nonresident alien for tax purposes. More information is available in the IRS Publication 519 (US Tax Guide for Aliens). Most F-1 and J-1 students are nonresident aliens for tax purposes and will not need the 1098-T form.

Can I still receive a 1098-T form even if I am a nonresident alien?

Yes, you may request a copy of the 1098-T form, but be advised that the receipt of this form does not indicate that for tax purposes you are eligible for any education-related benefits.
