

FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOR F-1 INTERANTIONAL STUDENTS

All degree-seeking students, who need a Form I-20 for an F-1 Student visa, must provide financial documentation to prove that they have sufficient funding to cover their expenses for the first academic year. The amount of funding (in U.S. dollars) must include tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, medical insurance, and other expenses. For current tuition, fees and estimated costs of living, please visit: <https://icc.edu/admissions/paying-for-college/tuition/>

STATEMENT OF COST:

Students and their sponsors should expect a 2.5 to 5 percent increase in both tuition and cost of living for each year in attendance. Degree-seeking international students must secure reliable and full funding for the duration of their studies.

ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR ACCOMPANYING DEPENDENTS:

Please add $6,000 for a spouse and $4,000 USD for each child to the minimum expenses per year. On a separate form students will need to provide the following information: names of your dependent(s), with legal family names, date of birth, country of birth, country of citizenship, relationship to the student.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE:

Full payment of tuition and fees is due in the beginning of each term. Be sure to know your government's regulations regarding foreign exchange and transfer of funds to the United States. Make arrangements before leaving your country to ensure complete funding for the beginning of each term and at regular intervals throughout the year. Detailed information about payments may be found at <https://icc.edu/admissions/paying-for-college/>.

SPONSORS:

As an international student applicant, you can have more than one sponsor. You can be your own sponsor as well. However, your sponsor cannot be someone who is holding an F-1 or j-1 nonimmigrant student status in the United States. Each of your sponsors must complete and sign the Affidavit of Support – Financial and/or the Affidavit of Support - Room and Board Sponsorship. If you will be your own sponsor, you must complete the Affidavit of Support - Financial form.

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT (FINANCIAL AND/OR ROOM AND BOARD):

On the reverse side of this statement is the Affidavits of Support. If you have more than one sponsor, please make a copy of each one of them. The Affidavit of Support must be accompanied by valid proof of funds from each sponsor. A list of accepted forms of proof, please consult the "Estimated Expenses F-1 International Students" document. Sufficient funds should show study and living expenses for at least the first academic year. Keep copies of all financial documentation for your visa application and consular appointment.

STUDENT CERTIFICATION:

I have read the above information regarding the funding of my study at Illinois Central College. I understand that (1) I must secure funding for all expenses while attending the college, (2) I am not to become a public charge while a student in the United States, (3) the submission of an Affidavit of Support - Room and Board ONLY deducts from the sum budgeted on my ICC I-20 for room and board; (4) I am responsible for payment of the remaining line items, (5) any and all expenses beyond those budgeted on my ICC I-20 are my responsibility.
