SEPTEMBER 2015 NEWS & EVENTS

TLC BLOGS

Are you following our blogs this semester? Our Tech Tools blog, posted every Tuesday for fourteen weeks, focuses on Google Apps & Tools this semester. Our Blackboard blog, posted the last three Wednesdays of each month, focuses on a different Blackboard topic each month. Join us the first Wednesday or Thursday of each month for Blackboard Users' Group gatherings in the TLC (participants may attend either day).

SEPTEMBER EVENTS

This month, in addition to our weekly blog posts, TLC staff is offering sessions on both Google Hangouts and Chromebooks. Join us for a Google Hangouts demonstration to learn more about using live text-based chats or video chats with a screen-sharing option to communicate with your students. Attend a Chromebook session and participate in discussion to help determine if a Chromebook might be for you. RSVP to the TLC to register for any session.
